Hanukkah

The festival of Hanukkah celebrates the rededication of the Temple after the victory of the Maccabees over the Greco-Syrians; indeed, the word “Hanukkah” means “the dedication.” In lighting the Menorah, we perform the mitzvah of Pirsumei Nisa – proclaiming the miracle in which the strong were subdued by the weak and the wicked by the righteous. The victory for the Maccabees guaranteed the survival of Israel and the religious civilization.

The Menorah symbolizes Torah: the miracle of the vial of oil that burned for eight days until fresh oil could be prepared has its parallel in the continuous fire of the spirit that has kept our people alive through every tribulation. Especially at a time when Israel is so severely put to the test, we must understand the ultimate promise of our survival that is G-d given and resides in our Torah.

The Laws of Hanukkah

It is incumbent upon every Jew to light the Hanukkah Menorah. Ideally, this Mitzvah should be performed with olive oil, but more commonly we use wax candles. The candles are placed in the Menorah beginning from the right side with the additional candle of each day being placed to the left of the candles of the previous day. The candle farthest to the left is lit first, then the one next to it, and so forth until all are lit.

The candles should burn for at least one half hour after the appearance of the stars; for this reason, on Friday night when we must light the Menorah before sunset, we should use extra large candles to ensure they burn sufficiently into the night.

The Menorah must be lit at home. The lighting of a Menorah in a synagogue, or at a communal celebration, does not constitute the fulfillment of the Mitzvah.

The miracle of Hanukkah could not have come about except through the heroism of Jewish women like Yehudit, who killed an enemy general and helped to save her people; for this reason, women do not do housework while the candles burn.

It is meritorious to rejoice with good food and gifts for the children.

The first night of Hanukkah is Sunday, December 25th
