APRIL - MAY 2007

החודש אייר תשס"ז

FROM OUR RABBI...

Sefira

The period of Sefirat Ha Omer is a period of Jewish national mourning, for it was during this period that the students of Rabbi Akiva were decimated by a plague, apparently during the tragic period of the rebellion of Bar Kochba against Rome. The rebellion of the Jews was put down with severity. Jerusalem was converted into a pagan city and the Jews were driven out of Judea.

On Lag B'Omer, the 33rd day of the counting of the Omer, the plague afflicting the students of Rabbi Akiva remitted and as a consequence this day became a day of joy.

During the Omer period we are forbidden to cut our hair and celebrate weddings. On Lag B'Omer all this becomes permissible. There are several alternate customs regarding mourning observances. One custom is to observe these tokens of national mourning from the day after Pesach until Lag B'Omer. Another custom is to observe this mourning from Rosh Chodesh Iyar until the second day of Sivan.

יום העצמאות - Israel Independence Day - Yom Ha'Atsmaut

We live at a time when two of our mourning days of Sefirah have been turned into days of our joy; Yom Ha'Atsmaut and Yom Yerushalayim. In accordance with P'sak of the Chief Rabbinate of Israel, we shall recite Hallel in the morning service. As a sign of joy and thankfulness that we have been zocheh to see the rebuilding of our homeland in our lifetime, we invite all our members to join us for the morning service to recite Hallel. May we see peace in our homeland. Yom Ha'Atsmaut will occur on Tuesday, April 24th.

יום ירושלים - Yom Yerushalayim

Day of the Liberation of Jerusalem

Jerusalem was liberated on Iyar 28 in 1967. This year Yom Yerushalayim will be celebrated on Wednesday, May 16th.

Lag B'Omer

Lag B'omer will occur Sunday, May 6th. On this day we are permitted to celebrate weddings and other Semachot. Tachanun is not recited.

Pesach Sheni

Pesach Sheni occurs on the 14th day of Iyar. When the Temple stood, those who were unable to offer the Korban Pesach on Erav Pesach either because they were ritually impure or outside of the environs of the Temple Mount area at the time, could offer Korban Pesach on Pesach Sheni. It is customary to serve Matzoh at the table on this day. We do not recite Tachanun. This year Pesach Sheni will be on Wednesday, May 2nd.
